

A Different Kind of House Concert!

This one will be a lot of fun! And it serves a good purpose too. As most of you know, Artichoke Music has struggled financially in these recent economic times. It looked like they were going to close their doors, but they've had a reprieve, and are getting some assistance from the Regional Arts and Culture Council. This is great news, because Artichoke really is Portland's musical living room, and we want them to stick around.

In order to help them along a little, we're holding a house concert with three excellent local singer-songwriters: Matt Meighan, John Manns, and of course, DonnaLynn. We'll each play a set and maybe have a surprise or two as well. We know you'll enjoy this show. Here's a little more about the performers:

"Durable songs to get you through many road miles"
- Southeast Examiner
"One of the most honest voices in folk music."
- Songwriter Danny Shafer

We met John at Artichoke and were carried away by his voice, playing and songwriting. Immediately feels like an old friend.
- DonnaLynn

The world needs your message and your magic!"
- Tracy Grammer
They are a joy to experience!" - Rev. Debbie Taylor, Unity of Beaverton

We hope you'll join us for another evening of fine, original music, up close and personal, to support a Portland music landmark. Summer should arrive by then, so this will be an outdoor show (weather permitting).

- Saturday, July 31
- "Doors Open" at 7:00 PM, Music starts at 7:30
- West Linn, OR 97068 (Directions will be provided.)
- Requested donation – it all goes to Artichoke: $15

We will be providing the usual refreshments – homemade cookies, coffee, tea, iced tea – and some other edibles as well. Come on out at 7:00 and visit, find a seat, have a couple of cookies or other refreshments, and enjoy another evening of excellent music.

Please mark this in your calendars, then let us know you'll be coming. We look forward to seeing you there!
